

Acknowledgements

This report was compiled in response to an invitation to civil society by the Government of the Republic of Zambia to actively participate in the process of formulating a Poverty Reduction Strategy Paper for Zambia (PRSP).

The following Facilitators, through consultations with Civil Society Organisations (CSOs), prepared the individual position papers as follows: Emmanuel N. Chidumayo (Environment), Laurent Kaela (Governance), Thompson H. Kalinda (Agriculture and Food Security), Cyprian Katongo (Education, Youth and Child), Chozi V. Lungu (Mining), Mebelo Kasuka Nhekairo Mutukwa (Macroeconomics), Stephen L. Muyakwa (Gender), Venkatesh Seshamani (Employment and Sustainable Livelihoods) and Kanyanta Sunkutu (Health, HIV/AIDS). Chrispin Mphuka (JCTR) prepared the first chapter (An overview of Zambia's economic and poverty situation). Venkatesh Seshamani (University of Zambia) was the Lead Facilitator for this very important process.

The report was edited by John Chileshe (University of Zambia).

Special acknowledgements are due to the Steering Committee of Civil Society for Poverty Reduction (CSPR) and all NGOs who participated in the process of formulating this report.

Gratitude is also due to the donor community for supporting civil society in this important process - especially, the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP), OXFAM (Zambia), GTZ, DFiD and UNICEF.

The CSPR Secretariat - Ms. Besinati Phiri (Co-ordinator, CSPR) and Mr. Gregory Chikwanka (Assistant Co-ordinator, CSPR) - co-ordinated the activities of civil society in the PRSP process.

Above all, appreciation goes to the Jesuit Centre for Theological Reflection, as the Co-ordinating NGO for the process, and the communities that spent their time to participate in this process.

Besinati Phiri
Co-ordinator, Civil Society for Poverty Reduction